

Event Vetting

Government employees, particularly high-level officials like United States Attorneys, are subject to ethical restrictions governing the types of events they may attend. Some restrictions relate to benefits, including luncheons, dinners, awards, and tokens of appreciation they may accept. Other restrictions relate, among other things, to participation in events that are sponsored by persons who do business with or lobby the Government; that have a fundraising component; where it may appear that official attendance is being used to promote the event or the sponsor; or where elected officials may be in attendance. To assist us in vetting compliance with government ethical restrictions, we would appreciate it if you could provide the following information. If you do not have specific information for each response, please provide such general or descriptive information as you currently have. Please do not hesitate to call the Office's Government Ethics Advisor, (b)(6), (b)(7)c at (b)(6), (b)(7)c or e-mail him at (b)(6), (b)(7)c to discuss this.

- If the U.S. Attorney is being honored:
- d. What are the criteria your organization applies to determine who should be honored for this specific award?
 - N/A

¹ For events that involve any fundraising leading up to or during the event: The United States Attorney may not participate in any active fundraising activity with respect to the event. Nor may the U.S. Attorney allow his name, position, or title to be used for any fundraising activity for your organization. If applicable, you may list his name as an awardee and/or speaker on the program and on invitations issued not more than 30 days prior to the event, along with other information about the program. He may not be listed on any “save the date” notices. Failure to comply with these limitations may preclude the U.S. Attorney from appearing at the event. If the U.S. Attorney is giving an official speech, he may be seated and have photos taken as appropriate for a speaker at the event, but you may not use his photo in connection with any other fundraising efforts.

- e. What is the internal process by which your organization selects potential honorees?
- f. For what specific public service or achievement do you wish to honor the U.S. Attorney?
- g. Did any of the accomplishments of the U.S. Attorney which you wish to honor directly affect the organization or its members? (Describe.)
- h. Do any of the board members or host committee or senior staff have any matters pending before or involving the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York?
- i. Please provide a description and the value of any award item (if the award item is a plaque, certificate or trophy of little intrinsic value, you may so indicate).
- j. Who else is expected to be honored at the event?
- If the U.S. Attorney is making a presentation, who else is expected to be making a presentation/be on a panel?
 - o The U.S. Attorney will share a stage with New York Police Commissioner William Bratton along with a high caliber broadcast journalist or criminal justice profession, who will moderate the conversation.
- k. Will the U.S. Attorney be presented with a token or memento in appreciation for his presentation?
 - i. ☒ Nothing
 - ii. ☐ Plaque or other memento of little intrinsic value
 - iii. ☐ Other. Please describe, including its value.
- Describe any special seating arrangements for U.S. Attorney, e.g., dais, general seating (depending on the nature of the event, the U.S. Attorney may or may not be able to accept "dais" seating.)
 - o The panel discussion will take place on stage in the Gerald W. Lynch Theater at John Jay College of Criminal Justice. Once the panel discussion comes to a close, Mr. Bharara will be lead off stage where he can view the remainder of the program from a reserved seat in the audience.

- Promotion of the event: please provide a copy of or link to the invitation/promotional material for the event (or if not available, for the prior year's event).
 - Our program is not yet available for public use, but below is a link to last year's program.
